Supreme Court Verdict on OBC Creamy Layer

- Distinction in Income Sources: The Supreme Court has stated that while determining the "Creamy Layer," income from salary should not be clubbed together with income derived from business, profession, or property.
- Protecting OBC Rights: This judgment protects OBC citizens from being unfairly deprived of their rightful entitlements.
- Affirmation of Higher Court Rulings: It upholds the rulings of various High Courts regarding the eligibility criteria for Civil Services examinations.
- Addressing Discrimination: It rejects the discriminatory practices that were previously applied against OBC candidates in various employment sectors.
- Reaffirming the Objective of Reservation: It reinforces the core principle that reservation is intended specifically for those who are socially and educationally backward.
