INDIA-TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO 8 AGREEMENTS SIGNED

- 8 Memorandums of Understanding were entered into between the two countries, including the tourism sector and improving the infrastructure of Nelson Island, where Indian indentured labourers who went from India to that country stayed for the first time.
- It has been informed that discussions were held on both sides regarding expanding the cooperation between India-Trinidad and Tobago in sectors including infrastructure, defence, forensics, and medicine, and in identifying the descendants of Indian indentured labourers sent by the British to Fiji, South Africa, Mauritius, and the Caribbean islands, which were its colonies during the 19th and early 20th centuries.
